

October 23rd 1895.

Edward Grieg

Honored Sir: -

I am taking the liberty of writing to you to thank you for the pleasure and delight I have in your music - such of it as I am able to see.

I am a musician - a pianist - and I would have others share with me your lovely music - for in this part of the country, you are not known as you ought to be - & your later ^{manuscript} works it is impossible to obtain -

I have thought I would like to honor you by giving a recital of your ^{manuscript} works - something which I think has never been done here - and in order that people may know you, I have wished to also give a biographical sketch - but it is difficult - I cannot find anything excepting the bare fact of your birthplace and date -

Will you be good enough to supply me with any facts or stories of your life and work which you would like me to mention.

You would be conferring a great favor on me by so doing.

May I then hope to hear from you at your earliest convenience?

I regret that I cannot read or write your language or I would not trouble you by using a strange one.

Yours respectfully

(Miss) Margaret Anderson
