Dear Sir

22 Jan 1889

Dear Messrs Gies.

Your writing to you to Messrs Angerer and also to Mr. Peters, not having heard of you for some time and being uncertain whether you are still in Germany.

I want to know your arrangements and when we may look forward to the pleasure of seeing you and Messrs Gies to whom I much desire to be introduced.

Probably the rest and quiet of the country for a week would be agreeable after your London concerts and it will enable you to see something of Warwickshire, and over special attractions to foreigners, Shakespeare's birthplace and house - What are the dates of your appearances in London, Mrs Harding & Tway go up for one of them, as

Mr. Chensbury and Mr. Stokely tell me you are umbically to be at the Liverpool or Birmingham concerts.

I have had a charming letter from Mr. Byer, how beautifully he expresses himself and in a foreign language too!!

Trusting that you are well and with kindest regards believe me

Faithfully yours

Charles Harding
