

Oct. 10th 1899.

My dear Mr Grieg.

I trust you will pardon me for asking your permission to dedicate to you say Third Sonata for piano, about to be published. A number of years ago a critic in The Musikalischer Wochenblatt said that my music itself was a dedication to you - this was apropos of one of my piano concertos - since writing which I trust I have made some improvement - However this may be, I will confess that the critic was right to some extent, for your music lies closer to my heart than I can well say - I have dedicated much to you in my thoughts, and this will be my excuse for sending you some of my music - If I do not receive your permission for the dedication I will at least have at last told you of my love for and loyalty to Ed. Grieg.

Edward Mac Dowell.

My dear Sir:

Will you permit me, in but English to express my best thanks for your kind letter and for the sympathy you feel for my music. Of course it will be a great honor and pleasure for me to accept your dedication. Some years ago I thought it possible to shake hands with you in your own country. ^{unfortunately} ~~unfortunately~~ ^{my} ~~my~~ ^{delicate} ~~delicate~~ health ^{is} ~~is~~ ^{prevented} ~~prevented~~ ^{from} ~~from seem to agree. With my best wishes for your ^{future} ~~future~~ ^{success} ~~success~~ ⁱⁿ ~~in~~ ^{all} ~~all~~ ^{your} ~~your ^{endeavors} ~~endeavors~~~~~~

If we are not to meet, I am glad to read ~~that~~
^{on the way on of your} ~~you~~ ^{are} ~~are~~ ^{the} ~~the~~ ^{practical} ~~practical ^{success} ~~success~~ ⁱⁿ ~~in~~ ^{America} ~~America~~~~

[Faint, mostly illegible handwriting, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]