Boston, July 15, 1893

Edward Grieg Esq.,
Bergen,
Norway:

Dear Sir:

Pardon the liberty
I take in addressing you but I do so with a feeling not entirely that of a stranger for besides knowing

by will your works
I have heard my uncle, William Masson, speak of his pleasant visits to you several summers
ago. I have a collection of autographs of musicians, including
those of Haydn, Schumann, Mendelssohn,

Stephen Heller, Aubert, Spohr and many others and I should value very highly yours. Will you feel disposed to let me hear it?
If it is not asking too much would you please write two or three measures for me of the second movement of your piano & cello sonata, Op. 36.

Trusting I have not asked too much and with respect

I am very truly yours

Henry Lowell Mason
