Her Edward Grieg,

Troldhaugen,

N. Bergen.

Smeby's Hotel, Bergen,
28 Aug. 1890

My dear Sir,

Through some delay in the post, your kind card of the 25th July was not delivered here until after I had left by steamer for Thronthjem on the evening of the 29th. I have only just this afternoon returned from the Nordfjord, and, as I leave for England this evening, it is unfortunately impossible for me to visit you at Trolldangen. But, as I come to Norway every summer, I shall hope next year to be more fortunate. I shall write to you again before I come over next year.

With kind regards,

Yours very sincerely,
Herr E. Grieg. Stenersen Print.
