

LEEDS TRIENNIAL MUSICAL FESTIVAL,

OCT. 9, 10, 11, & 12, 1907.

Telegrams:

"FESTIVAL, LEEDS."

Present Telephone No.

959.

Musical Festival Office, Great George Street.

Leeds, July 21, 1906.

Hon. Secretary,
Fred. R. Spark, J.P.

Dear Sir,

I have the pleasure
to agree to your terms for visiting Leeds for the above Festival, & conduct some of your works, at an inclusive fee of £100.

Please confirm this,
& oblige
Sincerely yours

Fred. R. Spark
Edward Grieg Esqr Bergen.

I have the pleasure ~~to accept~~ of accepting your kind invitation and agree with you terms.

I quite understand you but either you are very pleased with your agreement or my terms. (Among the programme, ~~can~~ ^{may} ~~to~~ ^{make} ~~propose~~?) ~~or do you wish to do it yourself?~~
I expect your proposals, or am I
to provide them myself?