Honored Sir,
It may interest you to learn that the Mendelssohn Choir, of this city, (Toronto, Canada) is singing your fine Cantata "Olaf Trygvason", at one of its concerts for this season, in association with the Pittsburg Orchestra. The chorus numbers 225 singers and besides the work named is preparing Mendelssohn's "Walpurgis Night", Beethoven's Ninth Symphony, and shorter works by Brahms, Cornelius, Wagner, Elgar, Tchaikovsky and others. The chorus is very much impressed with "Olaf Trygvason" and desire me to send to you their greetings.
With much respect,
Very sincerely yours
A. S. Vogt.
