Dear Sir:

I beg your pardon for having overlooked your inquiry, though I have since written you twice — once about the article and once about international copyright.

Kindly write the article in German, if it is as convenient as Norwegian. Otherwise, we can have it translated from the latter.

Very respectfully and sincerely yours,

R. U. Johnson.

Associate Ed.

Edward Grieg, Esq.
Christiania.

Dear Sir

in Norwegian as your letter arrived, you will kindly excuse me, that I am troubling you with a translation from the latter. I do not mind if the german Citations are to be translated into English and shall be obliged to you if you will be kind enough, ~~not~~ ^{to} let the paper appear, before I have sanctioned the English version.
