

October 18th, 1895.

R. W. GILDER, EDITOR.
R. U. JOHNSON,
ASSOCIATE EDITOR.
C. C. BUEL,
ASSISTANT EDITOR.

Mr. Edvard Grieg,
Bergen, Norway.

Dear Mr. Grieg:-

I doubt not you have seen the announcement of the death of Prof. Hjalmar Hjorth Boyesen, our friend and contributor, which occurred suddenly a fortnight ago. Prof. Boyesen's death would make it preferable that the article on Mozart should be written in German rather than in Norwegian, if equally convenient for you, as it is now difficult for us to get a good translator of Norwegian.

With kind regards,

Very sincerely yours,

R. U. Johnson,
Associate Editor.

We should be glad to be informed in advance of the despatch of the article so that we may arrange for a place for it.